“Persuading grant reviewers to fund your study”

Prof. Martin Stockler
NHMRC Clinical Trials Centre

When: Friday 11th October, 2013 3.30- 4.30pm (Refreshments served afterward)

Where: Medical Foundation Auditorium 92-94 Parramatta Road, Camperdown
Click to open map

Martin Stockler is co-director of cancer trials at the CTC, director of cancer trials NSW at the Cancer Council of NSW, and professor in the Department of Medicine and School of Public Health, University of Sydney.

Martin Stockler is a clinical epidemiologist and educator with special interests in: the design, execution, analysis and synthesis of cancer clinical trials; quality of life and preference as outcome measures in cancer clinical trials; evidence-based medicine in clinical practice and medical education and patient-doctor communication; and genitourinary and breast cancer. He is a consultant medical oncologist at the Sydney Cancer Centre, RPA and Concord hospitals.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR THIS INTERESTING SESSION - NO RSVP REQUIRED